

Tex Pattern

Helloooo it's Fearne. By popular demand here is the pattern for Tex <33 love my fellow crocheters. Have fun

Notes:

- ★ All increases & decreases are invisible stitches (invisible increase & invisible decrease)
- ★ I'm using US stitch terms (every sc refers to a UK dc)
- ★ The yarn used was Cygnet Jelly Baby Chenille Chunky Yarn, with a 5mm hook, and 12mm safety eyes.
- ★ I eyeballed connecting the head, arms, legs, and tail. Also inserting the eyes sorry :/. I trust you'll figure out what looks right but I do not have rows to tell you where to attach.
- ★ If there's any confusion on what the pattern is supposed to be doing, dm me on discord @ferb_t and i'll try to get back to you asap.
- ★ If using chenille yarn and it's your first time, a traditional magic ring won't work (You'll tear the yarn and you'll get fluff everywhere, it's a pain to clean up), There's some great vids online with different methods to make one without breaking it, find one that works best for you.
- ★ Everything is worked in rounds — do not sl st between rounds or it'll look clunky, just keep going
- ★ Enjoy your Tex and don't make 50 in the span of 3 weeks or you'll lose all feeling in your fingers
